

Dominion supports local organization with donation

ABOVE: Dan Stoddard, North Anna Nuclear Power Station site vice president, awards the VS. Coast Guard Auxiliary, Lake Anna Flotilla 87, with a $19,000 check to help with the construction of a new communications tower at the organization's Search and Rescue Detachment facility on the eastern end of Lake Anna. The 80-foot self-supporting tower will have a dual purpose, used for VHP Marine communications during patrols of Lake Anna and as part of an HF network that covers the Fast Coast and is implemented during potential disasters or emergencies. Present to accept the donation were (l to r) Stoddard: Ginger Ellis, Division 8 Commander; Heidi Derby, Auxiliary District Captain, Hampton Roads; CWO Tim Luton, Director Auxiliary Office, Portsmouth; Captain Patrick Trapp, Commander, Sector Hampton Roads; Ed Hine, U.S.C.G.A. Flotilla Auxiliary 84, Lake Monticello; Ron Ellis, Lake Anna Ops Coordinator; George Condyles, tower design and construction supervisor and Lake Anna Flotilla member; Barbara Kerr, Lake Anna Flotilla commander; and Jean McCormick, Lake Anna Flotilla member.
